

St George's Anglican Church, Travancore
From March 23rd until further notice, there will be NO worship services here at St George's

We are working on various ways of providing for devotional activities which can be carried out at home, including special Holy Week and Easter devotions. (Details will be on the website and notice board as they become available)

You are welcome to use our garden for PRIVATE prayer and contemplation, but you are asked to keep numbers in the garden well within the physical distancing recommendations

PLEASE: FIVE OR FEWER PEOPLE IN THE GARDEN to ensure privacy and separation

If you have any concerns or queries or need to talk to me I can be reached on:
